

Most Important Terms and Conditions (MITC)

1. Your trading account has a “Unique Client Code” (UCC), different from your demat account number. Do not allow anyone (including your own stockbroker, their representatives and dealers) to trade in your trading account on their own without taking specific instruction from you for your trades. Do not share your internet/ mobile trading login credentials with anyone else.
2. You are required to place collaterals as margins with the stockbroker before you trade. The collateral can either be in the form of funds transfer into specified stockbroker bank accounts or margin pledge of securities from your demat account. The bank accounts are listed on the stockbroker website. Please do not transfer funds into any other account. The stockbroker is not permitted to accept any cash from you.
3. The stockbroker’s Risk Management Policy provides details about how the trading limits will be given to you, and the tariff sheet provides the charges that the stockbroker will levy on you.
4. All securities purchased by you will be transferred to your demat account within one working day of the payout. In case of securities purchased but not fully paid by you, the transfer of the same may be subject to limited period pledge i.e. seven trading days after the pay-out (CUSPA pledge) created in favor of the stockbroker. You can view your demat account balances directly at the website of the Depositories after creating a login.
5. The stockbroker is obligated to deposit all funds received from you with any of the Clearing Corporations duly allocated in your name. The stockbroker is further mandated to return excess funds as per applicable norms to you at the time of quarterly/ monthly settlement. You can view the amounts allocated to you directly at the website of the Clearing Corporation(s).
6. You will get a contract note from the stockbroker within 24 hours of the trade.
7. You may give a one-time Demat Debit and Pledge Instruction (DDPI) authority to your stockbroker for limited access to your demat account, including transferring securities, which are sold in your account for pay-in.
8. The stockbroker is expected to know your financial status and monitor your accounts accordingly. Do share all financial information (e.g. income, networth, etc.) with the stockbroker as and when requested for. Kindly also keep your email Id and mobile phone details with the stockbroker always updated.
9. In case of disputes with the stockbroker, you can raise a grievance on the dedicated investor grievance ID of the stockbroker. You can also approach the stock exchanges and/or SEBI directly.
10. Any assured/guaranteed/fixed returns schemes or any other schemes of similar nature are prohibited by law. You will not have any protection/recourse from SEBI/stock exchanges for participation in such schemes.
